

3rd Grade Summer Reading

2018-2019

Third grade students are encouraged to read as often as possible during summer break. Students are to keep a reading log of the books they read. They are required to read at least 2 books from the following book selections. There is a range of reading levels to choose from. Please select books that are challenging, but not too difficult. Students will be given an assignment on the books the first week of school. Happy Reading!
